

VitaTaxHelp.org Taxpayer Consent

You understand this site collects personal identifiable information provided by me (social security numbers, Form W-2 and other documents) at the site in order to prepare and quality review the tax return. In this process, the taxpayer's tax return information is sent via this site to a VITA site in order for an IRS certified volunteer to interview the taxpayer, prepare the tax return, and perform a quality review.

You have been honest on this intake form and answered the questions to the best of your knowledge.

You and your spouse (if applicable) are ultimately responsible for all of the information you provide VITA Tax Help on the tax return.

You understand that VITATaxhelp.org is a website run by Code for America, a non-profit organization that will submit your tax application for you.

I agree to the terms of the VITA Tax Help privacy policy at www.VITATaxHelp.org/privacy

Details

My answers to the questions are true and complete to the best of my knowledge.

I understand that I must provide all required information/documentation necessary to prepare an accurate tax return.

I understand that I will need to participate in an Intake Interview and Quality Review via phone in order to have VITA file my taxes.

I understand that I may be contacted for additional information. If the preparer has everything required to prepare the return, I will not be contacted until the return is completed.

I understand I need to review my completed tax return to ensure the names, social security numbers, address, banking information, income, and expenses are correct to the best of my knowledge.

I understand that I will need to sign Form 8879, IRS e-file Signature Authorization, after Quality Review is completed in order for VITA to e-file my tax return.
